

Lifestyle Courses

	Ageing & Retirement	A course for people approaching retirement with strategies to manage their lives successfully
	Design in Your Life	Aims to use your life experience to comment on and improve the design and function of everyday objects
	Food for Thought	Learn about the history of food, the evolution of food cultures and their impact on the world through the ages
	Introduction to Western Philosophy	Learn about philosophy and philosophers and problems that perplex thinking men and women and of answers which have been put forward throughout the ages
	Maintaining Independence	This is a course about positive action to give you the tools and information to maximize your physical and mental health and wellness
	Myths and Legends	To stimulate interest in the stories which have formed the myths and legends which have been passed down through the ages
	Practical Psychology for Relationships	To provide an understanding of relationship psychology. Ethical foundations, personal characteristics and methods for managing difficulties in relationships

	Train Your Brain	This course will take you through some recent developments and various ways to “Train Your Brain”, de Bono’s Six Thinking Hats , Gardner’s Multiple Intelligences , critical thinking, and the art of mnemonics.
	The Shaping of the Modern Mind	Trace how the modern mind was shaped through the ages up to the present stage of global interaction
	Play Ukulele by Ear	This ‘instant play’ system is designed to take total beginners in minutes up to a level suitable for playing guitar by ear at the campfire, sing along, or BBQ
	Photography – getting the most out of your Digital Camera	Find how to take a camera off its automatic settings; the importance of the settings of ISO, aperture, shutter speed; tips on how to focus correctly downloading, editing and storage of image files
	Thoreau, Emerson and the Conduct of Life	To encourage people to form their own ideas about how best to live and to express their ideas in their own words and to develop a personal philosophy
Nature Courses
	Australian Flora	Gain an understanding of Australian plant diversity and knowledge of basic techniques of plant identification
	Botany: the Study of Plants for Enjoyment	Learn about plant structures and function and how they have adapted to their environment. Learn about plant classification and how people and plants interact

	Continents on the Move	Studies the patterns, processes and changing shapes of planet Earth and the relationships between the physical and social environments
	Saving the Soil	An examination of problems such as soil resource assessment and monitoring, and soil management. Discusses the major problem facing our civilization of how to feed the world's billions.
	Antarctica – the Frozen Continent	An introduction to Antarctica and the relationships between the physical and social environments of that region.
Science Courses
	Astronomy	The study of our Universe and, viewed very broadly, includes all aspects of the solar system and beyond
	Human Biology	An introduction to the biological aspects of the human body and mind function
	Maths – Number Theory	Number Theory has excited mathematicians from Ancient Greece to the 21 st century - comes from the simplicity of the stated theorems and conjectures and the challenge of proving them.
	Geometry – Different Worlds, Different Geometries (in development)	Euclidean geometry was to provide the mathematics for architecture and agricultural boundaries and transactions. The Elements of Euclid became the most read book in Europe after the Bible.
	Resources for the Future	A study of basic renewable

	– Renewable and Non-Polluting	resources, especially those used in the electrical and transportation industries
	The Evolution of Life on Planet Earth	Trace what science has discovered about the history of Planet Earth from its origin to the present formation
	The Night Sky	Offers a structured program of observation which will introduce you to most of the major features of the southern sky
	The Northern Sky	A good starting point for those in the Northern Hemisphere who know a little and want to know more about the mysterious northern sky
	The Story of Science 1 – the Emergence of Natural Philosophy	Covers the period from the appearance of man’s ancestors through to about 1650CE including the evolution of Homo sapiens and the earliest science ideas
	The Story of Science 2 – the Science Disciplines	The emergence of science disciplines dealing with biology and chemistry, developments in natural philosophy and background to the social sciences
	The Story of Science 3 – the Physical Sciences since 1800	About the developments in the physical sciences- chemistry and physics – from around 1800 to the early 21 st century
	The Story of Science 4 – Astronomy and the Behavioural Sciences since 1800	The developments of Astronomy, the Solar System, stars, galaxies and the modern theories of the origin of the universe
	Climate Change	An introduction to the historic, scientific, social and political dimensions of climate change, an urgent and controversial issue. For anyone interested in learning about and discussing climate change issues

	The Dinosaurs	This course aims to inform and share the current knowledge about the fossils that have been found to date....there is no doubt there will be more discoveries in the future
World Affairs and History Courses
	Australian History 1- Prior to Federation	Focuses on the history of the continent up to 1900 -
	Australian History 2 – Post Federation	Australian History post Federation, two world wars and changing governments
	China in Transition: from Mao to Now	About China's transition from sleep into one of the most powerful economic and military players in the world today
	Kings & Queens of England	An idiosyncratic review of the lives and reigns of the individuals who have worn the crown of England from the time of the Romans to the twenty-first century
	Left, Right or Centre: A very brief Introduction to Political Ideologies	An introduction to the study of comparative politics and development of political thought of the world's mainstream political ideologies

 Property to Partner Unit 1 - Theories and origins of inequality	Property to Partner	This Course looks at the various theories of why women have not been treated as equals and then traces the development of the movement towards equality in the Western world from ancient times to modern day
 RELIGIONS OF THE WORLD Unit 1	Religions of the World	To widen the knowledge of major world religions and give an understanding of the cultural and geographical factors that have influenced their development
 Renaissance Italy Unit 1 - The Idea of the Renaissance	Renaissance Italy	A fascinating period of cultural history revealing an interesting complex society
 The Romans Unit 1	The Romans	A review of the history of Rome and its empire starting in prehistoric times and the Roman contributions to our physical environment and our way of life
 THE GREAT TRANSFORMATION EDWARD GIBBON WAKEFIELD Unit 1 - 18th to Early 19th Centuries	The Great Transformation	The transformation of Britain from a pre-industrial to an industrial society.
 British Society in the Early 18th Century Unit 1 - A Developing Society	British Society in the 18th Century	Looks at British society in the very early stages of its transformation from a rural, mainly agricultural, society into the world's first industrialised one
 The Battle for Australia 1942-43	The Battle for Australia 1942-43	The defence of Australia in Papua New Guinea and the Kokoda Track
 Top Secret Umbra – the History of Espionage – This course has four parts	Top Secret Umbra – the History of Espionage – This course has four parts	Explains the use of Ciphers and Codes in times of war, and commerce in peace time

Writing and Creativity Courses

	Autobiography & Journaling	For anyone wanting to write their life story and to learn to use a journal as a tool for healing or self-discovery
	Basic English Grammar	A review of the fundamentals of English grammar for both those who have learnt English as a second language and also as a refresher for those who studied the subject at school
	Genealogy Online	Introduction to the techniques of researching the main facts of your family history using mainly material published on the Internet
	My Life Story	Provides the basic tools and knowledge to write and evaluate a long promised Life Story
	The Art of Editing	Techniques for checking your writing and make changes to improving the content and style
	Shakespeare: Rediscovering the Bard	An enjoyable and sometimes humorous journey through Shakespeare's life and times and his contribution to the English language
	Shakespeare's Canon	Explores the perennial claims that others had written the works of Shakespeare
	Storytelling with Pictures	For those who would like to combine photos with their story for interest and fun
	Henry Lawson – His Life, Work and Times	The work, life and times of Henry Lawson

	AB (Banjo) Patterson – His Life, work and Times	The work, life and times of Banjo Patterson
	The History and Spread of the English Language	Reviews the development of the English language in Britain from Roman times through to the present day, including contemporary developments such as texting and graffiti
	Skills for Using the Media	The course sets out to introduce participants to the skills required to write public relations scripts for all media.
	Unleashing your Creative Spirit	Aims to encourage and equip anyone with a creative passion to explore their goals and be inspired to try new ideas and techniques
	Writing Family History	An introduction to beginners to the fun of writing a family history and to help those who have started to take further steps
	Writing for Pleasure	Identifies the basic tools needed to write, increases the knowledge to improve writing and evaluation techniques
	The History of Poetry from Chaucer to Ted Hughes	To introduce participants to the study of British Poetry from Chaucer to Ted Hughes

SHORT COURSES

Mostly One Unit courses for a 'Taster' or introduction to our longer courses

	The History of Education	The history of education is about the development of systematic methods of teaching and learning
	Picnic at Hanging Rock	A short study of the novel and the original 1975 film with some commentary on the 2017 TV adaptation
	The Short Story in Literature	"...brief fictional prose narrative that is shorter than a novel and that usually deals with only a few characters."
	Short History of Marriage	Marriage in the Ancient Civilisations, up to 1800's Wedding and Engagement Rings, Some current Laws and where do we go in the future.